

A large, black, hand-painted brushstroke graphic that curves across the center of the image. The background is a soft gradient from purple on the left to orange on the right. The word "Respect" is written in a colorful, outlined font across the brushstroke.

Respect

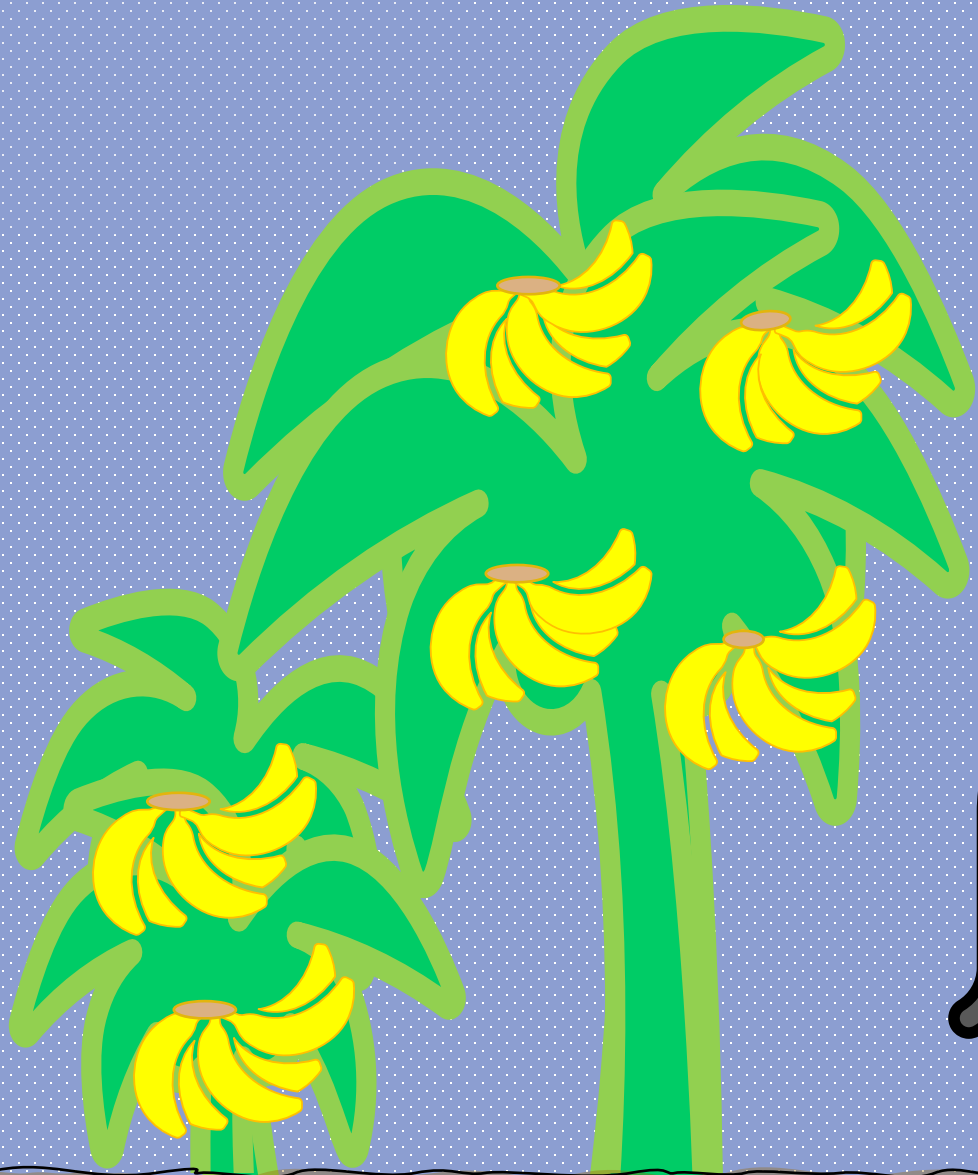

FOR YOU AND ME

is for rats who love red roses.

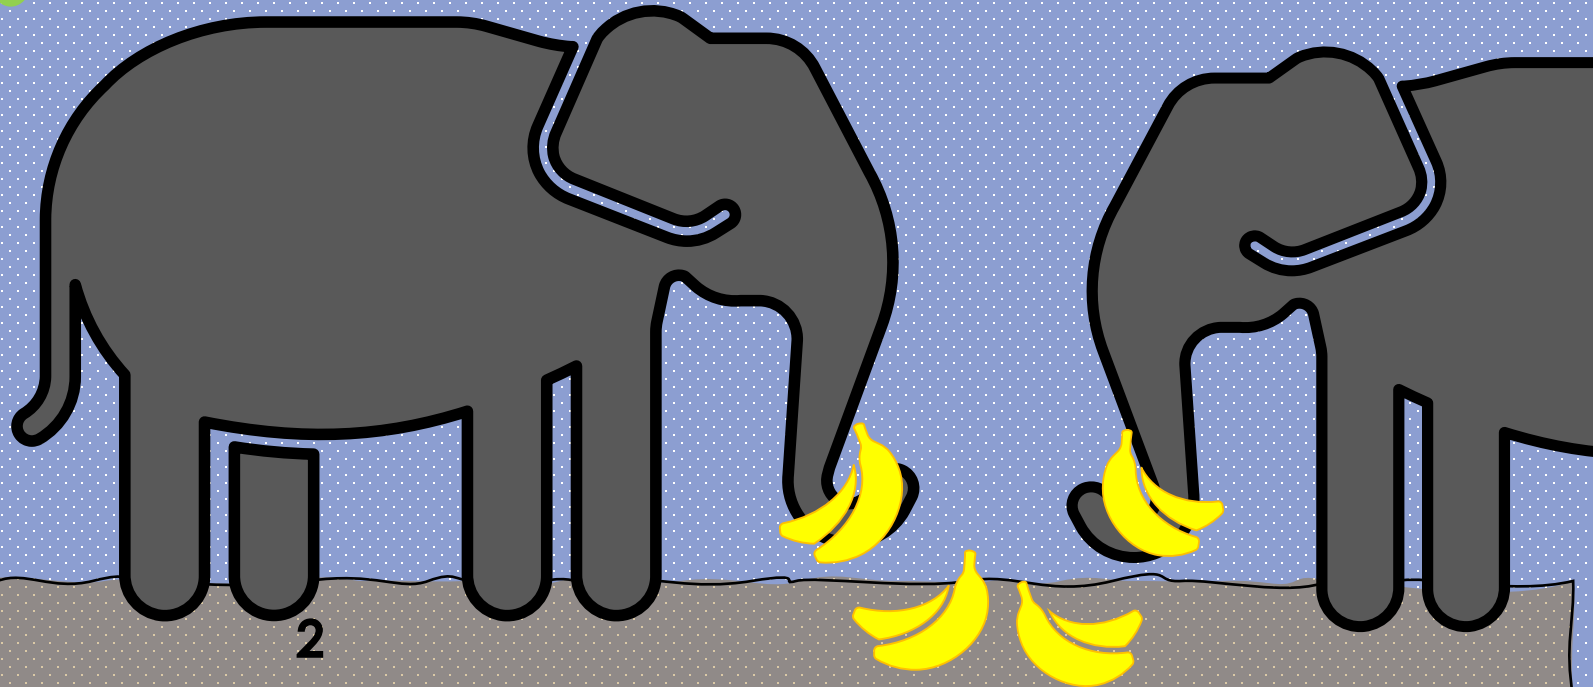

How many red apples do you see?
How many red roses do you see?

E

is for elephants with big ears eating bananas.

How many bunches of yellow bananas do you see in the trees?

2

S

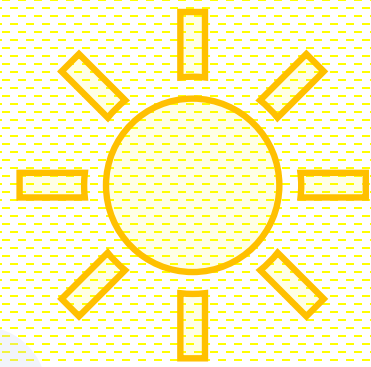

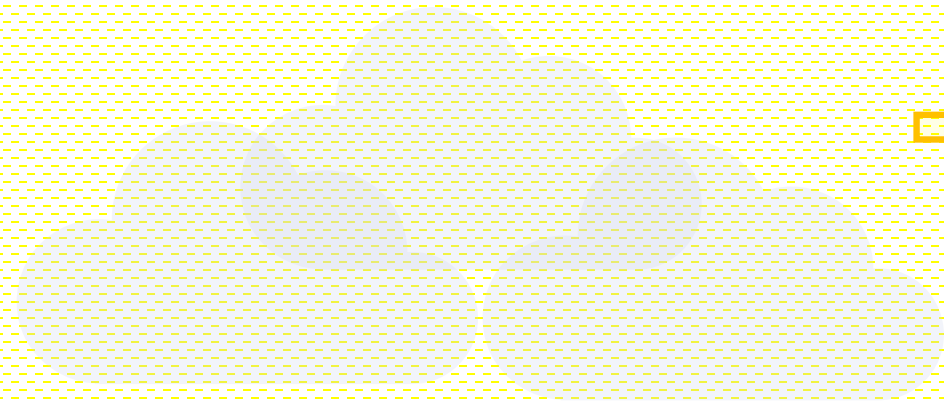

is for seahorses swimming in the sunset.

How many seahorses do you see in the ocean?

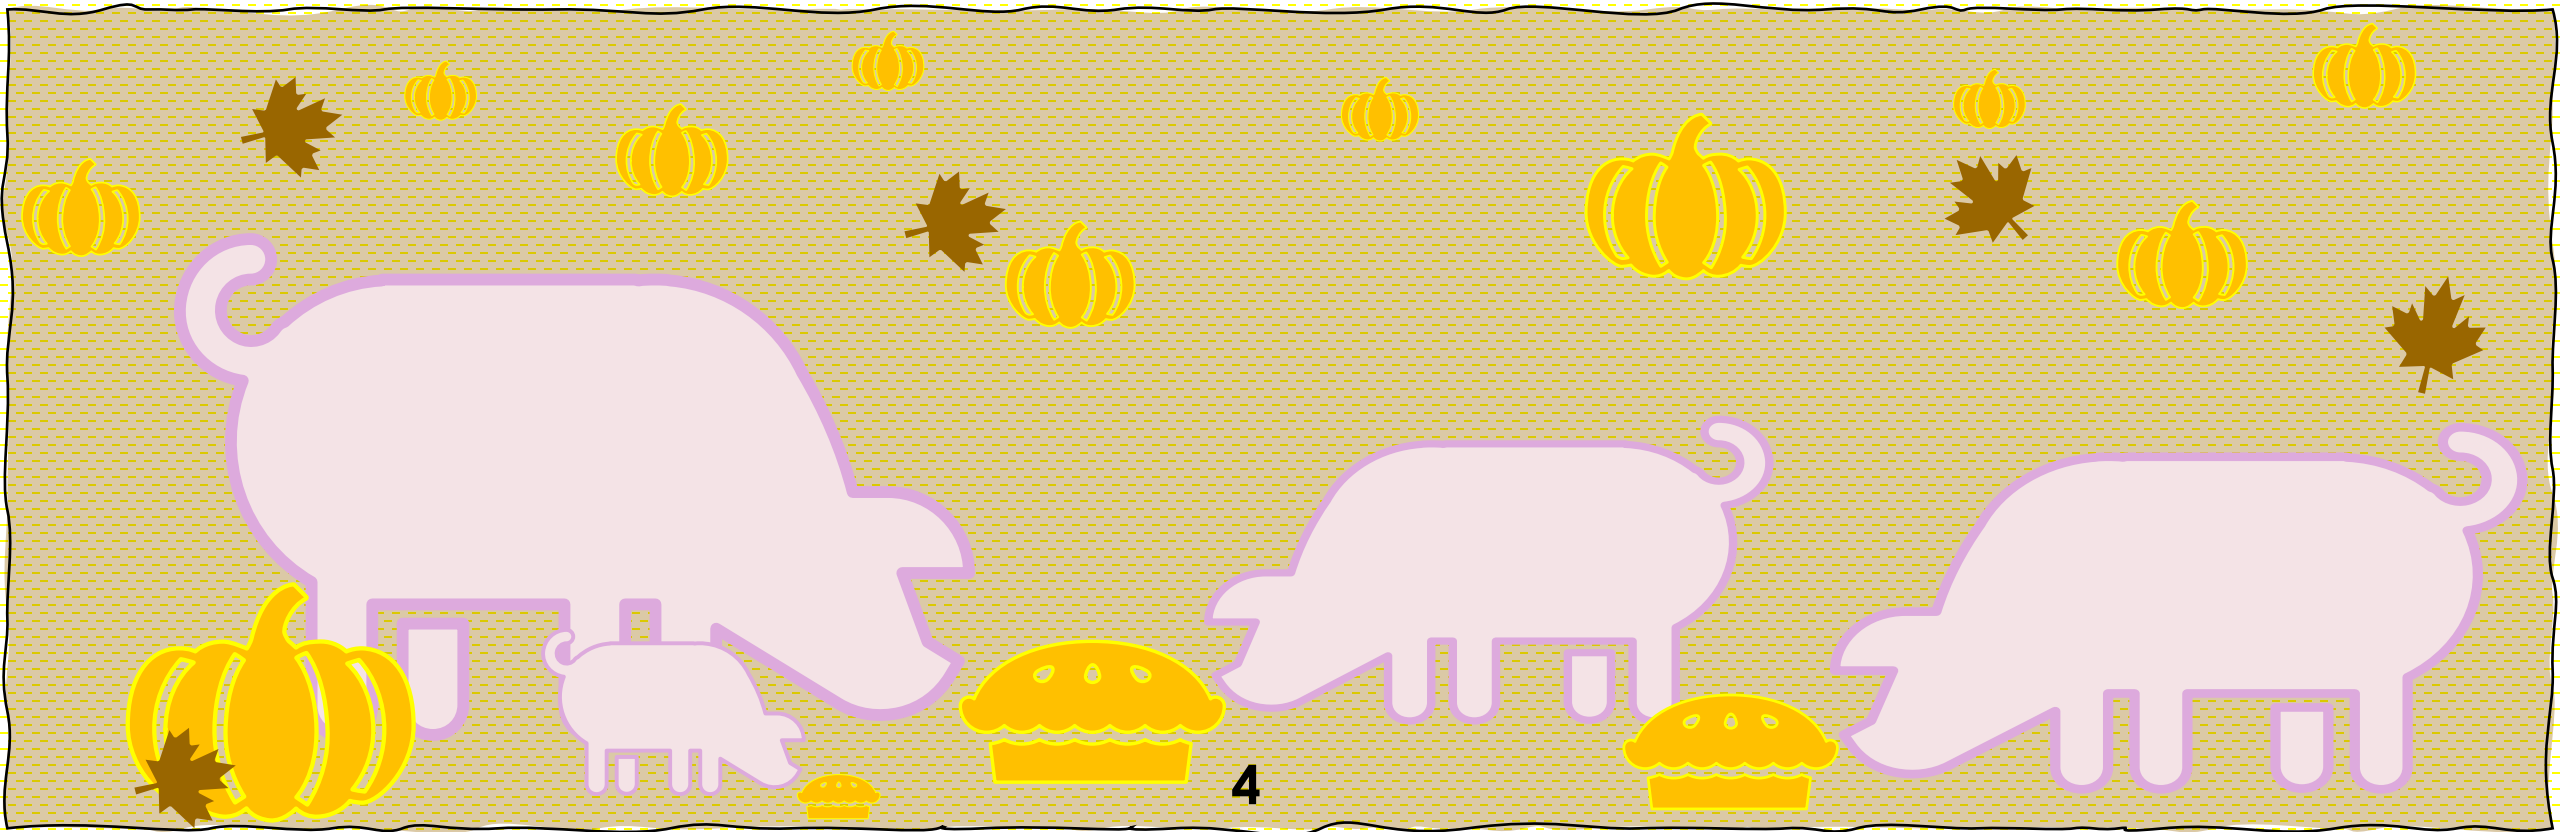

P

is for pink pigs eating pumpkin pie.

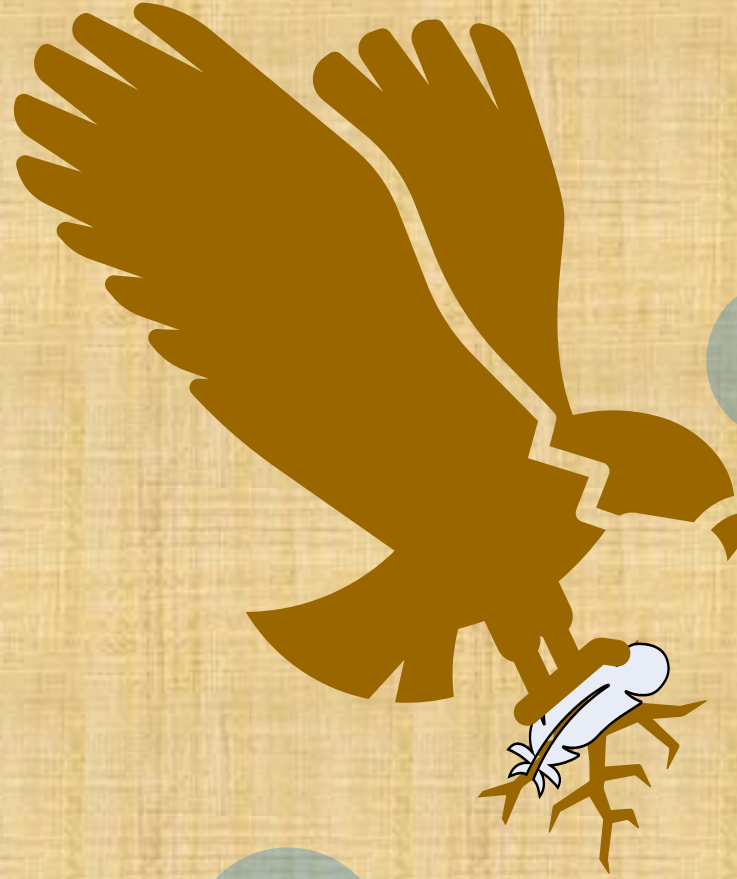

How many orange pumpkins do you see?

E

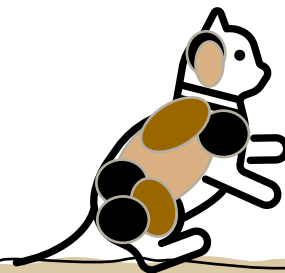

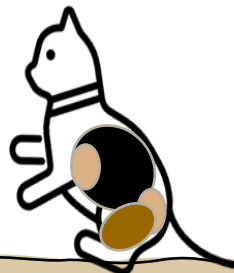

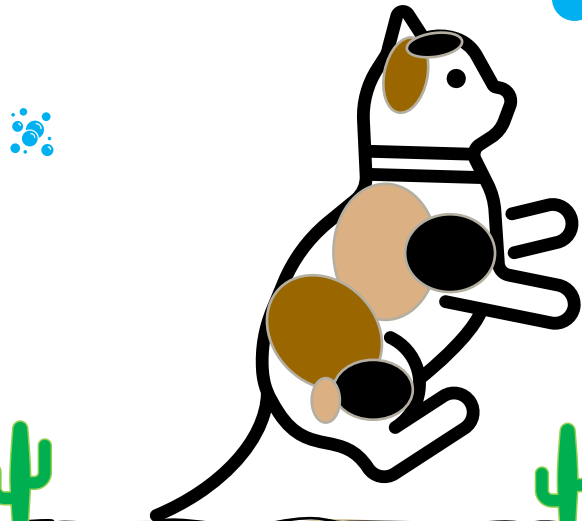

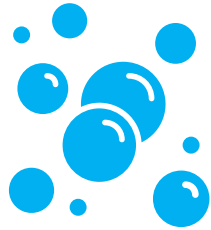

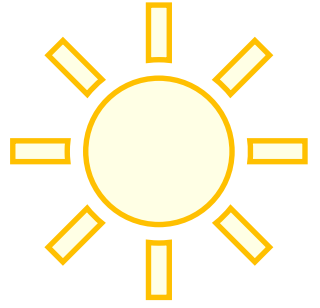

is for eagles laying eggs in their nests.

How many eggs do you see in the nest?

C

is for calico cats catching bubbles near a cactus.
How many green cacti do you see?

T

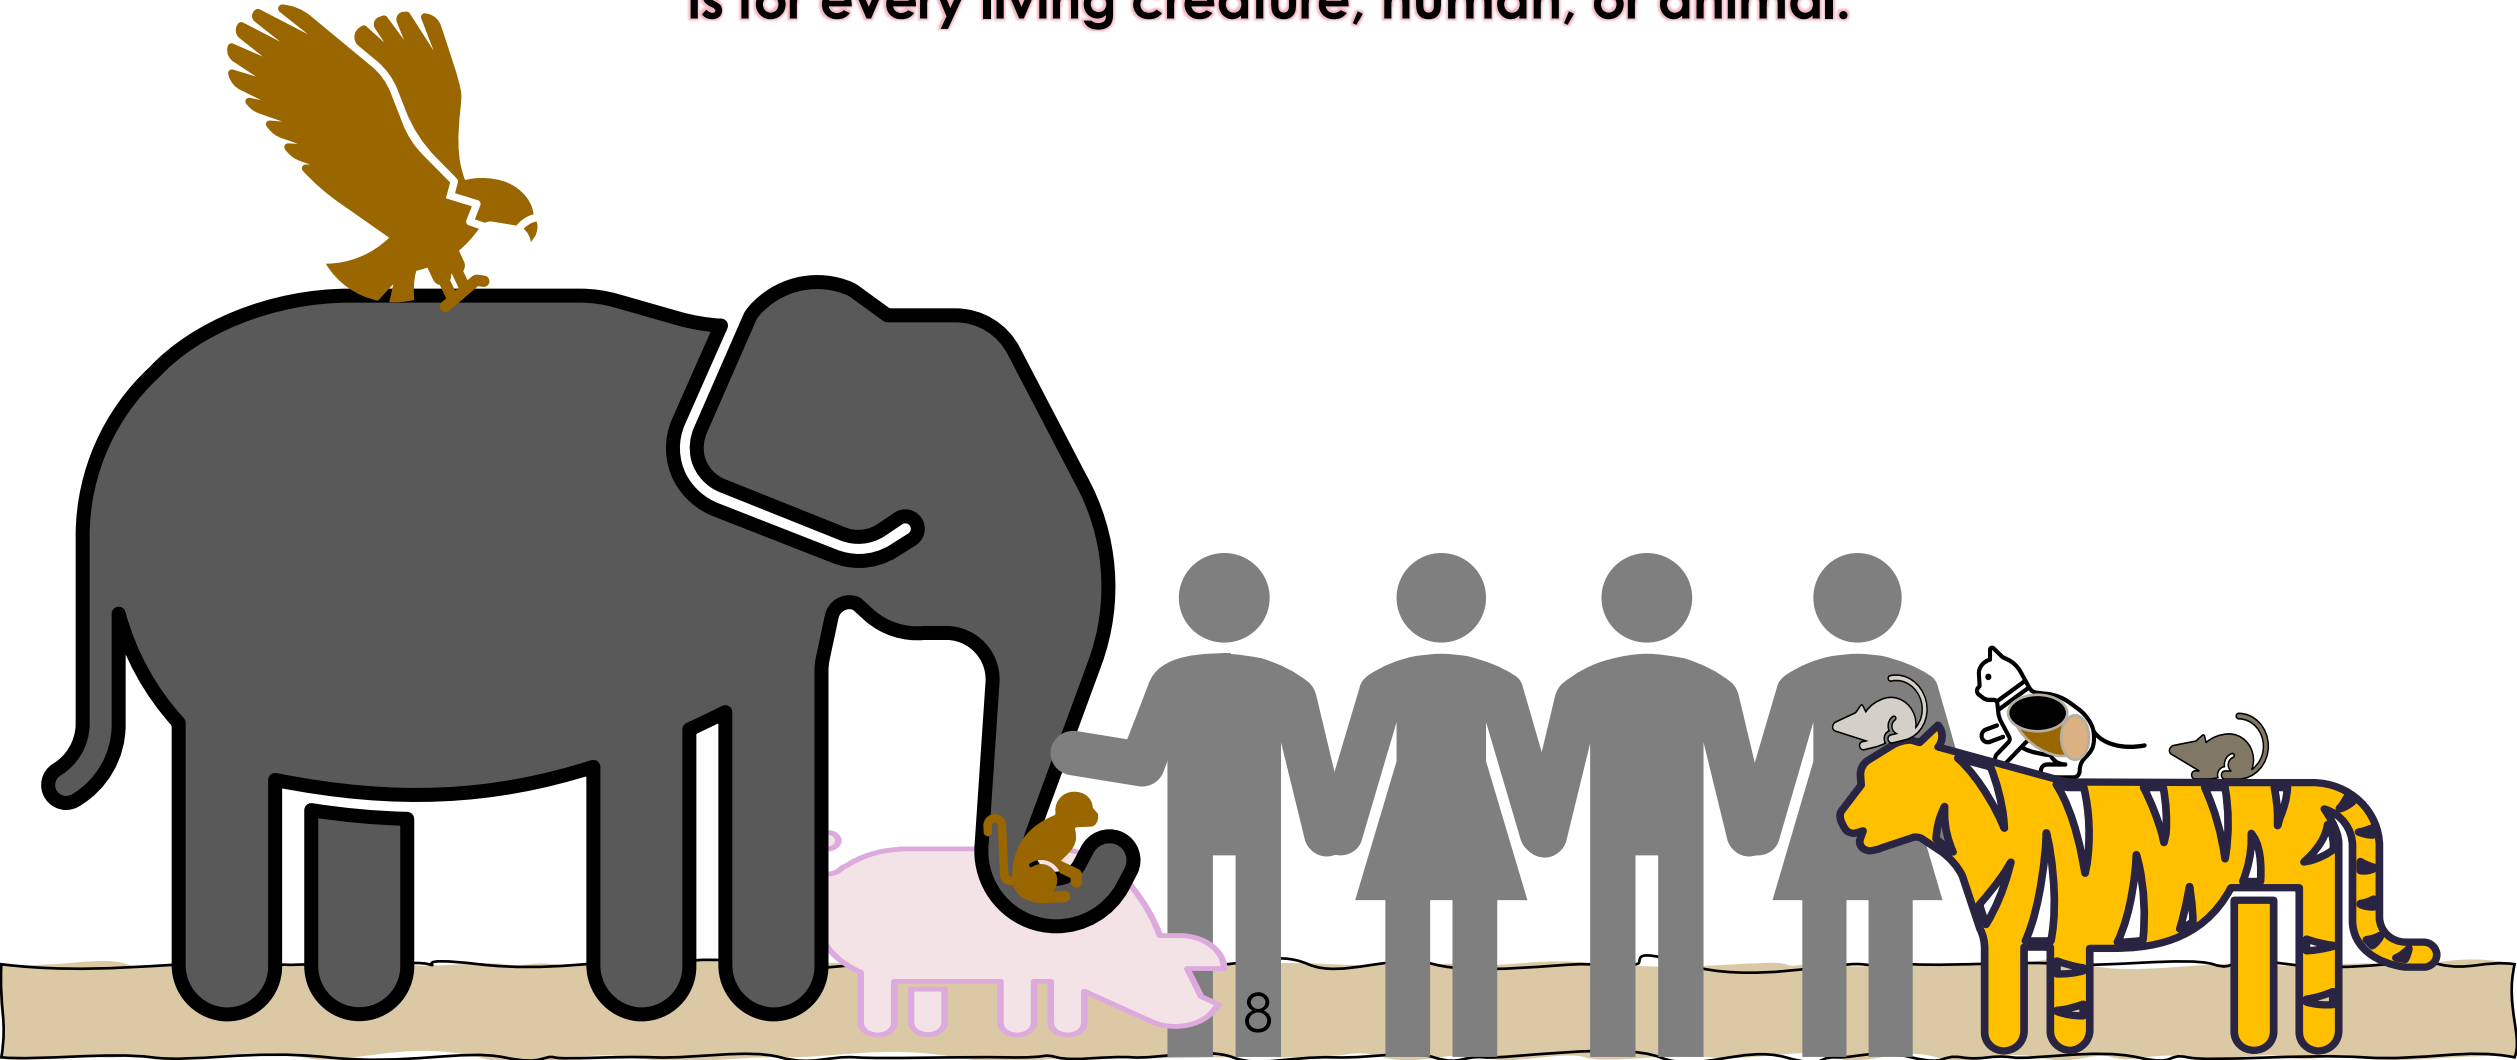

is for tigers drinking tea together.

How many brown monkeys do you see trying to join the tea party?

Respect

is for every living creature, human, or animal.

Animal Samaritans
HUMANE EDUCATION

Written By Diana Martinez